IX (Stage reading) Audition Information
By: John Brahan Directed by: Megan Longton

MONDAY, 8/22

12:30-1:20pm THEATRE SYMPOSIUM (Weekly Meeting) Chapman

Meet and greet each other, the faculty and your KSTO officers!

6:00-7:30pm AUDITION & CREW talk Chapman

Demystifying the audition process and audition sign-ups
Crew and other student opportunities, sign-ups and expectations
Directors' discussion of content, intimacy concerns, rehearsal expectations and scheduling
Q&A for all

7:30-8:30pm KSTO ICE CREAM SOCIAL FOR ALL Nichols

TUESDAY, 8/23

7-10pm MONOLOGUE AUDITION EVENING Chapman

IX will be cast from this call and it does conflict with HEAD OVER HEELS only. We want to see and hear you! Perform an audition monologue you've prepared or read one of the monologue audition options available at this link:
8 AUDITION MONOLOGUES.pdf

SHOW DATES: October 14-15, 2022, in the Purple Masque Theatre
This show only conflicts with HEAD OVER HEELS.

Audition: Open call Tuesday, August 23, 2022, 7-10pm Chapman Theatre

Important Information:
IX explores very mature themes of sexual assault on college campuses in sorority and fraternity life. This play was written in 2017 in Oxford, Mississippi and reflects the campus culture there. The intimacy in this show will be carefully navigated with assistance from Dr. Arp-Dunham.

IX will be a staged reading. Lines will not need to be memorized, and the rehearsal process will be guided by the Actor's Equity stage reading structure.

If you have any questions at all, don't hesitate to email me at mmlongto@ksu.edu.

SYNOPSIS:
After her friend Monica reports the incident to the university, Claire, the complainant, visits the Title IX office to recount a night that she barely remembers. She files a complaint claiming that her peer, Tripp, took advantage of her at a party. Tripp, the respondent, reluctantly pleads claiming, "She asked for it." Tripp and Claire give their statements to the Title IX coordinator, Mr. Williams. Their stories are told in flashback as the characters recount the evening with their friends and witness Monica, Sydney, Carter and Jake while Mr. Williams searches for the facts in their inebriated memories.

SCRIPT:
IX Revised Script.pdf

CHARACTER BREAKDOWN:
TRIPP: early 20's, poly science major
JAKE: early 20's, Tripp's friend
CARTER: early 20's, fraternity President
CLAIRE: early 20's, cheerleader
MONICA: early 20's, Claire's friend, journalist
SYDNEY: early 20's, Claire's friend
MR. WILLIAMS: Title IX coordinator
STAGE DIRECTIONS