THE CENTER FOR ADVOCACY, RESPONSE,
AND EDUCATION IS PROUD TO PRESENT A
SCREENING OF 'MY MASCULINITY HELPS'

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 25TH, 4:00-
6:00 PM

WILDCAT CHAMBER (LITTLE THEATER),
K-STATE UNION

My Masculinity Helps explores the role of African American men and boys in the prevention of sexual violence. Survivors also share their stories and what has helped them. The film serves as a counter-narrative to often inaccurate and misleading portrayals of African American masculinity. Our goal is to engage boys and men in the deconstruction of gender roles, masculinity, and power and in the prevention of sexual violence.
