INTERNSHIPS AT TRINITY REP

Tony Award-winning Trinity Repertory Company offers 9-month internships in

Stage Management | Electrics | Sound
Costumes | Education | Artistic Management
Brown/Trinity MFA Production & Program
Graphic Design | Development | Marketing

Benefits for Trinity Rep Interns

- Professional experience and intensive training
- Valuable contacts within your industry
- Living in a diverse, exciting, art-friendly city
- $50/week stipend to off-set living expenses
- Furnished housing and basic utilities

Full-season internships typically begin in mid August and run into the following June. Volunteer interns are important members of the theater family, with many responsibilities and high expectations. Through our seminar program, interns meet staff members from other departments of the theater, make valuable contacts and gain important skills to help them in their future. There may also be opportunities to earn additional overhire income at the theater.

Trinity Rep Interns have continued their careers as

- Associate General Manager, Atlantic Theater Company
- Associate producer, The Public Theater
- Associate artistic director, Trinity Repertory Company
- Education director, MCC Theater
- Assistant director of marketing, McCarter Theatre
- Production Manager, Pig Iron Theatre Company
- and many more!

About Trinity Repertory Company

Now in its 54th season, Trinity Rep is located in a historic landmark theater in downtown Providence, RI. At the core of Trinity Rep are our three pillars of community, company and education. We are home to the oldest, longest-standing Resident Acting Company and are the State Theater of Rhode Island. We are committed to a wide range of artistic programming including Shakespeare, new works, classics and musicals.
